

Regulations of the European Standards Committee - Cavy Section

§ 1

Organisation of the European Standards Committee - Cavy Section

- 1.1 The European Standards Committee - Cavy Section, hereafter called ESKC , is a permanent committee within the Cavy section, ressorting under the Members' meeting of the Cavy section.
- 1.2 The Committee consists of 5 to 7 members.
- 1.3 Membership of the ESKC requires being an active, proven judge in one's home country.
- 1.4 Nominations for election into the ESKC can be made by the affiliated countries.
- 1.5 Nominations for election into the ESKC must be in the hands of the section's President by December 31st.
- 1.6 The members of the ESKC are elected by the Members' meeting of the cavy section.
- 1.7 The term of office is three years and re-election is possible.
- 1.8 All delegates can be ESKC members as long as they are active judges.
- 1.9 The ESKC constitutes itself.
- 1.10 The ESKC holds meetings when deemed necessary, e.g. in conjunction with the annual Convention, the International Judges' Seminar etc.
- 1.11 Part of the expenses will be met by the EE-Executive as per their resolution of June 1st. 2000.

§ 2

Responsibilities of the European Standards Committee - Cavy Section

- 2.1 Compiling and updating the European Standard for Cavies.
- 2.2 Compiling decisions made by Cavy Section's Members' meeting as well as by the EE-Executive.
- 2.3 Checking, harmonising and coordinating the national standards of the affiliated countries with respect to the European standard -whilst considering all specific characteristics and requirements of breeds in the affiliated countries as well as their countries of origin.
- 2.4 Standardising new breeds and colours, as proposed by affiliated countries, whilst considering all the breed's specific characteristics and requirements in the affiliated countries as well as their countries of origin.
- 2.5 Updating the list of standardised breeds and colours within the European standard.
- 2.6 Updating the list of Rare breeds and /or Guidestandard or Unstandardised breeds and colours.
- 2.7 Establishing the country origin of new breeds and colours.
- 2.8 Formulating the system of judging at EE shows.
- 2.9 Paving the way for unification of the judging systems in all affiliated countries.
- 2.10 Observing all rules and decisions as made by the section.

The regulations of the European Standards Committee - Cavy Section were approved by the Members' meeting in Niederbronn-les-Bains, France on May 21st. 2004 and came into force with immediate effect.

.....
Evelyne van Vliet (Section President)

.....
Gaby Prust (Section Secretary)